Greeting from the Director

CHENGHAI JIN (PH.D.)
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL CENTER

Thank you for your interest in our International Summer School 2017!

Tokushima University (TU), one of the 82 Japanese national universities, is located in the city of Tokushima in Shikoku Island, Japan. TU is a comprehensive university with seven graduate schools and six undergraduate faculties and covers wide academic areas, such as humanities, pure sciences, engineering, pharmaceutical sciences, oral sciences, and medical sciences.

As you can find in following program description, this program offers you various opportunities to learn about TU and authentic local culture in Tokushima and to meet various people in TU and Tokushima.

As the director of the International Center, I proudly recommend this summer program. We all are waiting for see you in our Summer School.

About Our Program

This summer school is very unique in the sense that you can learn current research activities at TU and experience real and authentic local culture in Tokushima, such as Awa Dance and Indigo Dyeing, under the same program. In addition, we will have field trips where you can observe some sightseeing spots and visit factories in Tokushima. We will also have a campus tour and a lecture on Japanese culture so that you can deepen your understandings about Tokushima.

You also have time to interact with Japanese students and local Japanese residents during this program.

Hope you apply for our program and see you at TU this summer!!
